Dear Stakeholders

The UN Global Compact seeks to combine the best properties of the UN, such as moral authority and convening power, with the private sector's solution-finding strengths and resources, and the expertise and capacities of other key stakeholders. The initiative is global and local; private and public; voluntary, yet accountable.

It asks companies to embrace, support and enact, within their sphere of influence, a set of core values in the areas of human rights, labour standards, the environment, and anti-corruption by adopting the ten principles.

Since inception, NMDC has been voluntarily following these principles in its activities. After joining the UN Global Compact in the year 2001, NMDC has been honouring and complying with the ten principles with renewed vigour.

As the UN Global Compact enters its second decade with blueprint for corporate leadership and renewed commitments by business to advance corporate responsibility, I reassure you that NMDC is committed to the cause of the UN Global Compact, and has embedded the ten universal principles – in the areas of human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption – into our strategies, operations and culture.

With ward regards,

Yours sincerely

Rana Som
Chairman-cum-Managing Director
