

3rd November 2008

PRESS RELEASE
NMDC Vigilance Awareness Week

NMDC Limited, commenced the Vigilance Awareness Week (3-7 November 2008) by administering the oath to all the employees by the acting CMD Shri P.S. Upadhyaya. It was followed by a talk by the Chief Guest Shri J.M. Lyngdoh, Former Chief Election Commissioner of India. In his talk, he emphasized that everybody should prove himself that, he is discharging his duties honestly. All activities of the organization should run in a more transparent way and without compromising efficiency.

In his welcome address, Sri N V Raja Shekar, Chief Vigilance Officer, NMDC Ltd., stated that all steps have been taken to increase awareness among the users of the services provided by NMDC particularly for redressal of the grievances by online complaint lodging mechanism provided in NMDC Website. This online mechanism was inaugurated by Shri J.M. Lyngdoh today. Sri Raja Shekar also emphasized that steps are taken to protect the safety and identity of the whistle blowers who expose corruption.

Shri P.S. Upadhyaya, acting CMD stressed the need for efficiency and transparency in public spending.